COMPLAINT

I. INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff, Rachel Styczynski, brings this action against her former employers, MarketSource, Inc. (“Defendant MarketSource”) and Allegis Group (“Defendant Allegis”) (together “Defendants”). When Defendants became aware that Plaintiff was subjected to sexually harassing conduct by her male supervisor, they conducted an investigation and confirmed Plaintiff’s allegations. Despite that, Defendants did not inform Plaintiff whether they took any action against her sexual harasser; Defendants told Plaintiff that they wanted her to continue to report to her sexual harasser; and, Defendants continued to require Plaintiff to attend meetings and conferences in which her sexual harasser participated. Defendants ignored Plaintiff's begging them, repeatedly, to take her out of situations in which she would be forced to interact with her sexual harasser, even after she was eventually medically diagnosed with severe depression and anxiety as a result of the discriminatory and retaliatory treatment to which Defendants were subjecting her. Defendants continued to subject Plaintiff to discriminatory and retaliatory conduct to the point where she was forced to resign her position.

Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff based on her sex, and retaliated against her based on her complaints about the same, in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §2000e, et seq. ("Title VII"), the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act, as amended, 43 P.S. §951, et seq. ("PHRA"). Defendants also discriminated against Plaintiff based on her disability, and retaliated against her based on her requesting accommodations related to the same, in violation of the Americans with Disabilities Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §12101, et seq. ("ADA") and the PHRA. Defendants also discriminated against Plaintiff pursuant to the Family Medical Leave Act, as amended, 29 U.S.C. §2601, et seq. ("FMLA").

27. Plaintiff has fully complied with all administrative prerequisites for the commencement of this action.

IV. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

28. In around January 2014, Plaintiff became employed by Defendants as a part-time Sales Associate. Over the next two (2) years, she was promoted due to her consistently excellent performance, first to Sales Manager, and then to Electronics and Entertainment Lead.

29. At all times material hereto, Plaintiff performed her job duties in a highly competent manner.

30. In around January 2016, Plaintiff's supervisor vacated his District Manager ("DM") position, and George Syrellis (male), Regional Manager ("RM") for Eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and parts of New York, interviewed Plaintiff for the open position.

31. During the interview, Syrellis asked Plaintiff when she first realized that she was a lesbian.

32. As Plaintiff felt that she had no choice but to answer Syrellis' interview question, she told him that, due to her childhood history and issues with her father, she was more comfortable being in relationships with women.

33. Syrellis' response was to ask Plaintiff if she ever got "help for that."

34. Syrellis also told Plaintiff that Defendants had a history of making hiring and promotion decisions based on characteristics such as sex, race, and ethnicity.

35. In around March 2016, Defendants informed Plaintiff that she had been selected for the DM position reporting to Syrellis. In Plaintiff's new position, she was responsible for managing the Northeast Pennsylvania territory.

36. In around October 2016, while Plaintiff was speaking to colleagues at a work conference in Dallas, TX, she felt something smack her backside. When she turned around, Syrellis was standing behind her, laughing, and said, "it was only my clipboard."

37. At another point during the conference, Syrellis approached Plaintiff while she was speaking to a (male) colleague and said to Plaintiff's colleague whether he aspired to be mediocre. When the colleague said no, Syrelli said, while looking straight at Plaintiff, “then start hanging out with other people.”

38. Plaintiff complained about Syrellis’ conduct, including his smacking her backside, to supervisory-level employees while at the conference.

39. On or about October 21, 2016, Anita Cohen, Employee Relations Manager, contacted Plaintiff and said that she had learned of Syrellis’ inappropriate conduct and that Defendants were investigating the same.

40. In around November 2016, and while Defendants’ investigation into Plaintiff’s complaints regarding Syrellis’ inappropriate conduct was ongoing, Syrellis called Plaintiff to tell her that he wanted to have dinner with her because he did not want to eat alone. As Plaintiff was fearful of being alone with Syrellis due to his sexually harassing conduct, she visited one of her stores that required a long commute so that she would be unavailable to meet with him.

41. In around mid-November, Defendants informed Plaintiff that their investigation into Syrellis’ conduct was closed, and that her allegations were substantiated.

42. As Defendants admitted in the Position Statement that they submitted to the EEOC, they concluded that Syrellis “engaged in an inappropriate discussion” during Plaintiff’s interview “to include questions and comments relative to [Plaintiff]’s sexual orientation, religion, marital status, and children.”

43. Defendants also admitted in their EEOC Position Statement that they concluded that Syrellis did smack Plaintiff on the backside.

44. When Plaintiff told Cohen about Syrellis wanting to have dinner with her,

Cohen said that she was going to try to have the investigation re-opened.

45. No one from Defendants advised Plaintiff as to whether they were investigating Syrellis' conduct any further. No one from Defendants advised Plaintiff as to whether Syrellis had been subject to any disciplinary action as a result of his confirmed sexually harassing conduct against Plaintiff.

46. Shortly after Defendants advised Plaintiff that they had closed the investigation, Plaintiff asked Jennifer Mulhall, Executive Director of Human Resources, whether she was going to have to continue reporting to a man whom Defendants had confirmed had sexually harassed her.

47. Mulhall told Plaintiff that she would have to continue reporting to Syrellis, that she knew that it was a "big ask of us, but that Defendants wanted her to "rise above" the situation.

48. When Plaintiff told Mulhall that Syrellis had wanted to have dinner with her, and that she was uncomfortable continuing to report to him, Mulhall said that, as all of Plaintiff's meetings with Syrellis were in public, she was "safe." Plaintiff reminded Mulhall that Syrellis had engaged in sexually harassing conduct towards her in public. Plaintiff also asked how Defendants would protect her from retaliation for complaining about sexual harassment.

49. Mulhall's only response to Plaintiff was that she understood and that Defendants wanted her to "rise above" the situation.

50. Approximately one week later, Paul Jones (male), Regional Director and Syrellis' direct supervisor, informed Plaintiff that she would be reporting to him going forward.

51. Despite Plaintiff's reporting directly to Jones, she still was forced to interact with Syrellis, including on conference calls and in meetings in which she was required to participate.

52. Defendants copied Syrellis on emails that Plaintiff received regarding her work and the stores that she managed.

53. Syrellis, through one of his direct reports, relayed instructions to Plaintiff as to how he wanted certain issues handled in the stores that had been under his supervision and which Plaintiff now managed.

54. Up through around April 2017, Syrellis continued to have responsibility for approving Plaintiff's timecards.

55. In or around April 2017, Defendants removed certain of Plaintiff's high-performing stores from her area of responsibility, and assigned her to manage certain stores that had been under Syrellis' supervision and that had serious performance problems.

56. In or around Plaintiff was assigned to report directly to Jason Bare, Regional Manager. Bare reported directly to Jones.

57. As a result of Defendants' continued discriminatory and retaliatory conduct, Plaintiff was diagnosed with Major Depression Disorder with Anxiety brought on by Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder.

58. Plaintiff advised Defendants of her diagnosis and that, as a result of the same, she would need to take medical leave.

59. As a result of Plaintiff's medical condition, she was out of work on approved leave pursuant to the Family Medical Leave Act ("FMLA") from on or about

May 12, 2017 through on or about June 5, 2017.

60. On the day of Plaintiff's return from FMLA leave, Defendants scheduled her to participate in two (2) separate conference calls in which Syrellis was also participating, despite the fact that she had previously said that any contact with Syrellis was extremely distressing due to his prior conduct.

61. On or about June 14, 2017, Plaintiff submitted to Defendants a note from her doctor which stated that Plaintiff was being treated for which stated as follows:

Rachel Styczynski is currently under my care. Patient was seen in our office for an evaluation. Ms. Styczynski is being treated for Major Depression Disorder with Anxiety brought on by PTSD stemming from workplace sexual harassment at the hands of fellow employee, George Syrellis. It is medically necessary that Ms. Styczynski have no contact whatsoever with Mr. Syrellis from this day forward. Failure to comply with this medical order will result in a significant worsening of the acute condition for which Ms. Styczynski is presently being treated for.

62. Later that same day, Mulhall contacted Plaintiff and asked Plaintiff what she thought that Defendants were supposed to do about her request for an accommodation regarding her medical condition given that her group held regional meetings of which both she and Syrellis were a part.

63. Plaintiff told Mulhall that she had just returned to work from medical leave, that she was trying to focus on her work and do her job and that, on her very first day back from medical leave, Defendants scheduled her for two conference calls in which Syrellis was involved, which was very upsetting to her.

64. Mulhall's response was that Plaintiff needed to come up with accommodation as to the regional meetings that both she and Syrellis attended. Mulhall also told Plaintiff that she was required to attend conference calls in which both she and Syrellis participated.

65. Mulhall's dismissive comments to Plaintiff, and confirmation that Defendants were refusing to grant her accommodation, was extremely upsetting to Plaintiff. Plaintiff began crying on the call to the point that she was unable to talk.

66. Plaintiff then emailed Mulhall that she understood from their discussion that Defendants were refusing to grant her request for an accommodation regarding her medical condition. Despite Plaintiff's obvious distress, medical diagnosis, and her doctor's request for an accommodation on her behalf, Defendants did not respond any further to Plaintiff's request for an accommodation at that time.

67. Plaintiff continued, per Mulhall's instructions, to participate in conference calls and meetings which Defendants scheduled and which both she and Syrellis participated.

68. At some point thereafter, Mulhall informed Plaintiff that she did not have to attend meetings if she was uncomfortable doing so, as long as she obtained the information that was presented at the meeting. This impacted Plaintiff's work environment and her job, as, at times, she was forced to exclude herself from meetings which she wanted to attend and which would help her do her job, and in which the rest of her group participated. To the best of Plaintiff's knowledge, Syrellis continued to participate in group meetings and conference calls.

69. In or around late summer/early fall of 2017, Plaintiff learned that Jones made disparaging and hostile comments about her, including the following:

- (a) That the situation with Syrellis and Plaintiff involving Syrellis' sexual harassing conduct was blown out of proportion;
- (b) That there was no way that Syrellis had sexually harassed Plaintiff;

- (c) That Plaintiff was “just chasing a pay day”;
- (d) That he was so confident that Plaintiff had made up her claims that he could “probably smack any other female DM [District Manager] like Nicci [a female manager] playfully on the ass and be okay”;
- (e) That Plaintiff “was not going to dictate to us the terms of her employment”; and,
- (f) That Defendants needed to take corrective action against Plaintiff.

70. In or around mid November, Mulhall told Plaintiff that she would be given a warning regarding her not having attended certain meetings at a work conference a few weeks earlier (of which she had advised her supervisor and which she had skipped because she was extremely distressed as it was at the same conference the prior year that Syrellis sexually harassed her).

71. Plaintiff reminded Mulhall that she had been told previously that she could skip any meeting at which she was uncomfortable, and the reason why she had skipped certain meetings at the conference. Mulhall denied the same and demonstrated hostility towards Plaintiff, including expressing skepticism about her reason for needing to skip the meeting and being dismissive of Plaintiff’s distress.

72. According to Bare, who was also on the call with Mulhall and Plaintiff, “I couldn’t understand why Jennifer [Mulhall] was unable to sense Rachel’s apparent emotional distress and work to de-escalate the conversation, instead seeming to badger [Plaintiff] into an eruption.”

73. On or about November 15, 2017, Bare resigned his employment with Defendants. He said in his resignation letter that, after Jones’ comments (set forth above in Paragraph 66), “This marked the first time that I began to wonder if anyone involved in this case had any actual understanding of the seriousness of these allegations and had taken the time to consider that there may be an actual victim.”

74. Bare also stated in his letter that, “I cannot help but now see a young lady who was the clear victim of sexual harassment who has [been] abandoned by her organization and the leaders involved in the case....I simply cannot understand how an organization whose pride lies in its declared core values and its people first mantra can continue to support the constant badgering and continued emotional mistreatment of one of its own.”

75. On December 3, 2017, Plaintiff sent the following email to Defendants:

I have been sexually harassed. I have been retaliated against after I complained about being sexually harassed. I can't take it anymore. As a result of the company's treatment, I am being forced to resign my employment, effective immediately.

76. Plaintiff's sex was a motivating and/or determinative factor in Defendants' discriminatory treatment of Plaintiff, including the hostile work environment to which Plaintiff was subjected and Plaintiff's separation of employment.

77. Plaintiff's complaining of sex discrimination was a motivating and/or determinative factor in Defendants' retaliatory treatment of Plaintiff, including the hostile work environment to which Plaintiff was subjected and Plaintiff's separation of employment.

78. Plaintiff was disabled, and/or had a record of a disability, and/or was regarded as being disabled, within the meaning of the ADA and the PHRA.

79. Plaintiff's disability, including her record of disability, and Defendants' regarding her as having a disability and her request for an accommodation was a motivating and/or determinative factor in Defendants' discriminatory and/or retaliatory treatment of Plaintiff.

80. Defendants retaliated against Plaintiff for exercising her rights to FMLA leave.

81. Defendants failed to prevent or address the discriminatory and retaliatory conduct referred to herein and further failed to take corrective and remedial measures to make the workplace free of discriminatory and retaliatory conduct.

82. The retaliatory actions taken against Plaintiff after she complained of discriminatory conduct would have discouraged a reasonable employee from complaining of discrimination.

83. The discriminatory and retaliatory conduct of Defendants, as alleged herein, was severe and/or pervasive enough to make a reasonable person believe that the conditions of employment had been altered and that a hostile work environment existed, and made Plaintiff believe that the conditions of employment had been altered and that a hostile work environment existed.

84. As a direct and proximate result of the discriminatory and retaliatory conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff has in the past incurred, and may in the future incur, a loss of earnings and/or earning capacity, loss of benefits, pain and suffering, embarrassment, humiliation, loss of self-esteem, mental anguish, and loss of life's pleasures, the full extent of which is not known at this time.

85. Defendants acted with malice and/or reckless indifference to Plaintiff's protected rights.

COUNT I - TITLE VII

86. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference paragraphs 1 through 85 above, as if set forth herein in their entirety.

87. By committing the foregoing acts of discrimination and retaliation against Plaintiff, Defendants have violated Title VII.

88. Said violations were done with malice and/or reckless indifference, and warrant the imposition of punitive damages.

89. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' violation of Title VII, Plaintiff has suffered the damages and losses set forth herein and has incurred attorneys' fees and costs.

90. Plaintiff is now suffering and will continue to suffer irreparable injury and monetary damages as a result of Defendants' discriminatory and retaliatory acts unless and until this Court grants the relief requested herein.

91. No previous application has been made for the relief requested herein.

COUNT II – ADA

92. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference paragraphs 1 through 91 above, as if set forth herein in their entirety.

93. By committing the foregoing acts of discrimination and retaliation against Plaintiff, Defendants have violated the ADA.

94. Defendants acted intentionally, and with malice and/or reckless indifference to Plaintiff's rights, and their conduct warrants the imposition of punitive damages.

95. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' violation of the ADA, Plaintiff has suffered the damages and losses set forth herein and has incurred attorney's fees and costs.

96. Plaintiff is now suffering and will continue to suffer irreparable injury and monetary damages as a result of Defendants' discriminatory and retaliatory acts unless and until this Court grants the relief requested herein.

97. No previous application has been made for the relief requested herein.

COUNT III – FMLA

98. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference paragraphs 1 through 97 above, as if set forth herein in their entirety.

99. Defendants, have retaliated against Plaintiff and violated the FMLA.

100. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' violation of the FMLA, Plaintiff has suffered damages and losses set forth herein and has incurred attorneys' fees and costs.

101. Defendants acted without good faith or reasonable grounds for believing that their acts did not violate the FMLA and the imposition of liquidated damages is warranted.

102. Plaintiff is now suffering and will continue to suffer irreparable injury and monetary damages as a result of Defendants' violations of the FMLA unless and until the Court grants the relief requested herein.

103. No previous application has been made for the relief requested herein.

COUNT IV – PHRA

104. Plaintiff incorporates herein by reference paragraphs 1 through 103 above, as if set forth herein in their entirety.

105. Defendants, by the above improper and discriminatory and retaliatory acts, have violated the PHRA.

106. Said violations were intentional and willful.

107. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' violation of the PHRA, Plaintiff has sustained the injuries, damages, and losses set forth herein and has incurred attorney's fees and costs.

108. Plaintiff is now suffering and will continue to suffer irreparable injuries and monetary damages as a result of Defendants' discriminatory and retaliatory acts unless and until the Court grants the relief requested herein.

109. No previous application has been made for the relief requested herein.

RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff seeks damages and legal and equitable relief in connection with Defendants' improper conduct, and specifically prays that the Court grant the following relief to the Plaintiff by:

(a) declaring the acts and practices complained of herein to be in violation of Title VII;

(b) declaring the acts and practices complained of herein to be in violation of the ADA;

(c) declaring the acts and practices complained of herein to be in violation of the FMLA;

- (d) declaring the acts and practices complained of herein to be in violation of the PHRA;
- (e) enjoining and permanently restraining the violations alleged herein;
- (f) entering judgment against the Defendants and in favor of the Plaintiff in an amount to be determined;
- (g) awarding compensatory damages to make the Plaintiff whole for all lost earnings, earning capacity and benefits, past and future, which Plaintiff has suffered or may suffer as a result of Defendants' improper conduct;
- (h) awarding compensatory damages to Plaintiff for past and future pain and suffering, emotional upset, mental anguish, humiliation, and loss of life's pleasures, which Plaintiff has suffered or may suffer as a result of Defendants' improper conduct;
- (i) awarding punitive damages to Plaintiff under Title VII;
- (j) awarding punitive damages to Plaintiff under the ADA;
- (k) awarding liquidated damages to Plaintiff under the FMLA;
- (l) awarding Plaintiff such other damages as are appropriate under Title VII, the ADA, the FMLA, and the PHRA;
- (m) awarding Plaintiff the costs of suit, expert fees and other disbursements, and reasonable attorney's fees; and,

(n) granting such other and further relief as this Court may deem just, proper, or equitable including other equitable and injunctive relief providing restitution for past violations and preventing future violations.

2. Harm Summary

I have been discriminated against because of my sex, including being sexually harassed. Evidence of the same includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- (a) In or around January 2016, Mr. Lara told me that he was transferring to a DM position in a different region, vacating his DM position in Mr. Syrellis' region. Mr. Lara recommended me to fill his position. In or about late February 2016, I met with Mr. Syrellis for an interview regarding the DM position;
- (b) The interview with Mr. Syrellis lasted approximately three (3) hours. During the interview, Mr. Syrellis asked me when I first realized that I was a lesbian;
- (c) I felt as though I had no choice but to respond to Mr. Syrellis' question. I told him that I have always been someone who could love anyone, and that, given my childhood history, I was more comfortable being in relationships with women;
- (d) Mr. Syrellis asked me if I ever got "help for that." I do not know whether Mr. Syrellis was asking whether I got "help" regarding my being a lesbian, or for my childhood history which I had referenced;
- (e) Mr. Syrellis then told me that Respondent MarketSource, Inc. had a history of not hiring or promoting individuals based on characteristics such as sex, race, or ethnicity;
- (f) In or about early March 2016, Respondents informed me that I was selected for promotion into Mr. Lara's DM position, supporting territory in Northeast Pennsylvania, and reporting to Mr. Syrellis;
- (g) In or about October 2016, I was at a conference in Dallas, Texas with other DMs and Regional Managers, including Mr. Syrellis. At one (1) point, I was talking to some of my colleagues when someone smacked my backside. When I turned around, Mr. Syrellis was standing behind me, laughing, and he said, "it was only my clipboard";
- (h) During another conversation with my colleagues at the conference, Mr. Syrellis approached us and said to the one (1) male in the group, "do you aspire to be mediocre?" When the employee said no, Mr. Syrellis said to him while looking straight at me, "then start hanging out with other people";
- (i) I complained to supervisory-level employees regarding Mr. Syrellis' inappropriate conduct towards me, including his comments during the interview and his conduct at the conference;
- (j) On or about October 21, 2016, I got a call from Anita Cohen, Employee Relations Manager. Ms. Cohen said that someone reported my complaints about Mr. Syrellis, and that she was investigating the same;
- (k) On or about October 24, 2016, I sent Ms. Cohen an email detailing Mr. Syrellis' inappropriate and harassing conduct, including his questions and comments to me during the interview, and his conduct at the Dallas conference;

EEOC Charge of Discrimination

- (l) In or around mid-November, Mr. Syrellis called me to tell me that he wanted to have dinner with me because he did not want to eat alone. I was very uncomfortable being alone with Mr. Syrellis, and I was afraid to tell him no. I visited one (1) of the stores in the far reaches of my district that required a long commute so that I could avoid having to have dinner with Mr. Syrellis;
- (m) In response to my repeated requests for an update regarding Respondents' investigation, on or about November 15, 2016, Ms. Cohen informed me that the investigation was closed;
- (n) When I asked Ms. Cohen the results of the investigation, including whether this was a "he said/she said" issue, she said that it was not, and that my allegations regarding Mr. Syrellis' conduct had been "substantiated;"
- (o) I also complained to Ms. Cohen about Mr. Syrellis asking me to have dinner because he did not want to eat alone. Ms. Cohen told me that she was going to push to have the investigation into Mr. Syrellis' inappropriate conduct reopened;
- (p) I asked Ms. Cohen whether I had to continue to report to a man whom Respondents had confirmed sexually harassed me. Ms. Cohen told me that my question was a good one, and that she would look into that issue and get back to me;
- (q) In or around late November, Jennifer Mulhall, Executive Director of Human Resources, called me. I asked her the same question that I asked Ms. Cohen, whether Respondents were going to have me continue to report to a man whom they confirmed sexually harassed me. Ms. Mulhall said, "yes," and that she knew that this was a "big ask of us," but that Respondents were "hoping that you will rise above" the situation;
- (r) I told Ms. Mulhall about Mr. Syrellis asking me to have dinner with him, and told her that I was very uncomfortable continuing to report to Mr. Syrellis. Ms. Mulhall told me that all of my meetings with Mr. Syrellis were in public and that, as such, I would be "safe." I told Ms. Mulhall that, as Respondents were aware, Mr. Syrellis' sexually harassing conduct towards me was in public, and that that did not stop him. I also asked Ms. Mulhall how Respondents could protect me from retaliation, if they did not protect me from sexual harassment;
- (s) Ms. Mulhall's response was only that she understood, and, again, that she knew that it was a "big ask," but that Respondents were "hoping that you will rise above" the situation;
- (t) On or about December 2, 2016, Mr. Jones called me and said that I would be reporting directly to him going forward;
- (u) I have had to remove myself from Respondents' online discussion groups in which my colleagues are involved because Mr. Syrellis participates in the same and interacting with him makes me extremely uncomfortable; and,
- (v) Up until the end of January 2017, both Mr. Syrellis and I were still included on the same emails and meeting invitations regarding our region.

B. 1. Respondents' Stated Reasons

- (a) Respondents have not offered any explanation for the hostile work environment based on my sex to which I have been subjected; and,
- (b) Respondents have not offered any explanation for failing to take appropriate corrective and/or remedial action regarding my complaints of discrimination.

C. 1. Statutes and Basis for Allegations

I believe that Respondents have discriminated against me and subjected me to a hostile work environment based on my sex in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §2000(e), et seq. ("Title VII"), and the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act, as amended, 43 P.S. §951, et seq. ("PHRA"), as set forth herein.

You have the right to file this charge of discrimination with the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission (PHRC) under the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act. EEOC Charge of Discrimination

On or about February 3, 2017, I filed a Charge of Discrimination with the EEOC regarding the sex discriminatory conduct to which I was being subjected, including Mr. Syrellis sexually harassing me (a copy of the Charge was sent to Respondents on that same day).

2. Harm Summary

Respondents have continued to discriminate against me because of my sex, and have, and continue to, retaliate against me based on my complaints about the same. Evidence of the Respondents' continued discriminatory, and retaliatory, conduct includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- (a) In or about early April 2017, certain of my highest-performing stores were removed from my responsibility and assigned to other employees in my group. I was reassigned to manage stores that had been under Mr. Syrellis' supervision and that had serious problems, including significant staffing deficiencies and loss prevention issues;
- (b) Despite Respondents investigating my allegations of Mr. Syrellis' sexual harassment towards me, and confirming the same, as set forth in detail in my initial Charge of Discrimination, and despite Respondents eventually changing my official reporting structure so that I no longer reported directly to him, he continues to retain oversight over my work and he is still involved in communications regarding my work, which is very upsetting to me. The same includes:
 - 1. Up until early April 2017, Mr. Syrellis continued to be the manager who was responsible for approving my weekly timecards;
 - 2. Mr. Syrellis has been copied on emails to me regarding my work and the stores that I manage;
 - 3. One (1) of Mr. Syrellis' direct reports relays to me instructions that Mr. Syrellis wants me to follow regarding the stores that were under his supervision and are now under my management; and,
 - 4. Mr. Syrellis joins conference calls on which I am a participant.

B. 1. Respondents' Stated Reasons

- (a) Respondents have not offered any explanation for the hostile work environment based on my sex to which I have been subjected;
- (b) Respondents have not offered any explanation for failing to take appropriate corrective and/or remedial action regarding my complaints of discrimination; and,
- (c) Respondents have not offered any explanation for retaliating against me based on my complaints of sex discrimination.

C. 1. Statutes and Basis for Allegations

I believe that Respondents have, and continue to, discriminate against me and subject me to a hostile work environment based on my sex, and have, and continue to, retaliate against me based on my complaints regarding the same, in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §2000(e), et seq. ("Title VII"), and the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act, as amended, 43 P.S. §951, et seq. ("PHRA"), as set forth herein.

On or about February 3, 2017, I filed a Charge of Discrimination with the EEOC regarding the sex discriminatory conduct to which I was being subjected, including Mr. Syrellis sexually harassing me (a copy of the Charge was sent to Respondents on that same day).

On or about April 17, 2017, I filed a Second Charge of Discrimination with the EEOC regarding the continued sex discriminatory and retaliatory conduct to which I was being subjected (a copy of the Charge was sent to Respondents on that same day).

On or about June 6, 2017, I filed a Third Charge of Discrimination with the EEOC regarding the continued sex discriminatory and retaliatory conduct to which I was being subjected (a copy of the Charge was sent to Respondents on that same day).

2. Harm Summary

Respondents have continued to discriminate against me because of my sex, and have, and continue to, retaliate against me based on my complaints about the same. Respondents have also discriminated against me based on my disability. Evidence of Respondents' continued discriminatory and retaliatory conduct includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- (a) On or about June 14, 2017, I sent Respondents a note from my doctor requesting an accommodation for my medical condition. My doctor's note stated that I am being treated for Major Depression Disorder with Anxiety brought on by PTSD stemming from the sexual harassment to which Mr. Syrellis had subjected me. My doctor stated that it was "medically necessary" that I have "no contact whatsoever" with Mr. Syrellis going forward, and that "[f]ailure to comply with this medical order will result in a significant worsening of the acute condition for which" I am being treated;
- (b) Later that same day, Jennifer Mulhall, Human Resources, contacted me. She asked me what I thought Respondents were supposed to do about my request for an accommodation regarding my medical condition as far as my group's regional meetings (which both Mr. Syrellis and I attend). I told Ms. Mulhall that I had just returned to work from my medical leave, that I was trying to pick up the pieces and do my job, and that, on my first day back, I was scheduled for two (2) conference calls with Mr. Syrellis, which was extremely upsetting to me;
- (c) Ms. Mulhall then told me that I needed to call her back and let her know what I thought the company was supposed to do about my request for an accommodation as to the regional meetings in which both Mr. Syrellis and I are involved (despite the fact that Respondents had the note from my doctor regarding my request for an accommodation for my medical condition);
- (d) Ms. Mulhall also told me that, as far as the conference calls (in which both Mr. Syrellis and I participate) go, important information is relayed in those calls, and that I needed to participate in them;
- (e) Ms. Mulhall told me that I would have "minimal exposure" to Mr. Syrellis on those calls, and that, as such, Respondents expected me to participate in the same;
- (f) At that point, I was crying too hard to continue the conversation, and I told Ms. Mulhall that I was too upset and needed to end the call;

- (g) I subsequently emailed Respondents, including Ms. Mulhall, about our phone call, and stated my understanding from our call that Respondents were refusing to grant my request for an accommodation regarding my medical condition. I asked that Respondents let me know if my understanding was not correct;
- (h) Respondents never responded to my email, and they did not engage any further with me regarding my request for an accommodation;
- (i) Respondent has continued to schedule conference calls and meetings in which both Mr. Syrellis and I participate; and,
- (j) Respondents have not informed me of any actions that they have taken regarding my continued complaints of discriminatory and retaliatory conduct.

B. 1. Respondents' Stated Reasons

- (a) Respondents have not offered any explanation for the discrimination, including a hostile work environment based on my sex to which I have been, and continue to be, subjected;
- (b) Respondents have not offered any explanation for the discrimination based on my disability to which I have been subjected;
- (c) Respondents have not offered any explanation for their failure to engage in the interactive process with me regarding my request for an accommodation;
- (d) Respondents have not offered any explanation for failing to take appropriate corrective and/or remedial action regarding my complaints of discrimination; and,
- (e) Respondents have not offered any explanation for retaliating against me based on my complaints of sex discrimination.

C. 1. Statutes and Basis for Allegations

I believe that Respondents have, and continue to, discriminate against me and subject me to a hostile work environment based on my sex, and have, and continue to, retaliate against me based on my complaints regarding the same, in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §2000(e), et seq. ("Title VII"), and the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act, as amended, 43 P.S. §951, et seq. ("PHRA"), as set forth herein. Respondents have also discriminated against me based on my disability, in violation of the Americans with Disabilities Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §12101, et seq. ("ADA") and the PHRA.

INFORMATION FOR COMPLAINANTS & ELECTION OPTION TO DUAL FILE WITH THE PENNSYLVANIA HUMAN RELATIONS COMMISSION

Rachel Styczynski v. MarketSource, Inc. et al.

EEOC No. _____

You have the right to file this charge of discrimination with the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission (PHRC) under the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act. Filing your charge with PHRC protects your state rights, especially since there may be circumstances in which state and federal laws and procedures vary in a manner which would affect the outcome of your case.

Complaints filed with the PHRC must be filed within 180 days of the act(s) which you believe are unlawful discrimination. If PHRC determines that your PHRC complaint is untimely, it will be dismissed.

If you want your charge filed with the PHRC, including this form as part of your EEOC charge, with your signature under the verification below, will constitute filing with the PHRC. You have chosen EEOC to investigate your complaint, so PHRC will not investigate it and, in most cases, will accept EEOC's finding. If you disagree with PHRC's adoption of EEOC's finding, you will have the chance to file a request for preliminary hearing with PHRC.

Since you have chosen to file your charge first with EEOC, making it the primary investigatory agency, the Respondent will not be required to file an answer with PHRC, and no other action with PHRC is required by either party, unless/until otherwise notified by PHRC.

If your case is still pending with PHRC after one year from filing with PHRC, you have the right to file your complaint in state court. PHRC will inform you of these rights and obligations at that time.

[Sign and date appropriate request below]

X I want my charge filed with PHRC. I hereby incorporate this form and the verification below into the attached EEOC complaint form and file it as my PHRC complaint. I request EEOC to transmit it to PHRC.

X I understand that false statements in this complaint are made subject to the penalties of 18 Pa.C.S. §4904, relating to unsworn falsification to authorities.
